III. Authority

This RFP is issued under the provisions of the Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) Chapter 103F and its administrative rules. All prospective applicants are charged with presumptive knowledge of all requirements of the cited authorities. Submission of a valid executed proposal by any prospective applicant shall constitute admission of such knowledge on the part of such prospective applicant.

IV. RFP Organization

This RFP is organized into five sections:

Section 1, Administrative Overview: Provides applicants with an overview of the procurement process.

Section 2, Service Specifications: Provides applicants with a general description of the tasks to be performed, delineates provider responsibilities, and defines deliverables (as applicable).

Section 3, Proposal Application Instructions: Describes the required format and content for the proposal application.

Section 4, Proposal Evaluation: Describes how proposals will be evaluated by the state purchasing agency.

Section 5, Attachments: Provides applicants with information and forms necessary to complete the application.

V. Contracting Office

The Contracting Office is responsible for overseeing the contract(s) resulting from this RFP, including system operations, fiscal agent operations, and monitoring and assessing provider performance. The Contracting Office is:

Department of Human Services

State agency responses to applicant written questions will be provided by:

Date: 7/25/11

VIII. Submission of Proposals

A. Forms/Formats - Forms, with the exception of program specific requirements, may be found on the State Procurement Office website referred to in II. Website Reference. Refer to the Proposal Application Checklist for the location of program specific forms.

1. Proposal Application Identification (Form SPO-H-200). Provides applicant proposal identification.
2. Proposal Application Checklist. Provides applicants with information on where to obtain the required forms; information on program specific requirements; which forms are required and the order in which all components should be assembled and submitted to the state purchasing agency.
3. Table of Contents. A sample table of contents for proposals is located in Section 5, Attachments. This is a sample and meant as a guide. The table of contents may vary depending on the RFP.
4. Proposal Application (Form SPO-H-200A). Applicant shall submit comprehensive narratives that address all of the proposal requirements contained in Section 3 of this RFP, including a cost proposal/budget if required.

B. Program Specific Requirements. Program specific requirements are included in Sections 2, Service Specifications and Section 3, Proposal Application Instructions, as applicable. If required, Federal and/or State certifications are listed on the Proposal Application Checklist located in Section 5.

- C. Multiple or Alternate Proposals. Multiple or alternate proposals shall not be accepted unless specifically provided for in Section 2 of this RFP. In the event alternate proposals are not accepted and an applicant submits alternate proposals, but clearly indicates a primary proposal, it shall be considered for award as though it were the only proposal submitted by the applicant.
- D. Tax Clearance. Pursuant to HRS Section 103-53, as a prerequisite to entering into contracts of $25,000 or more, providers shall be required to submit a tax clearance certificate issued by the Hawaii State Department of Taxation (DOTAX) and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The certificate shall have an original green certified copy stamp and shall be valid for six (6) months from the most recent approval stamp date on the certificate. Tax clearance applications may be obtained from the Department of Taxation website. (Refer to this section's part II. Website Reference.)
- E. Wages and Labor Law Compliance. If applicable, by submitting a proposal, the applicant certifies that the applicant is in compliance with HRS Section 103-55, Wages, hours, and working conditions of employees of contractors performing services. Refer to HRS Section 103-55, at the Hawaii State Legislature website. (See part II, Website Reference.)
 - Compliance with all Applicable State Business and Employment Laws. All providers shall comply with all laws governing entities doing business in the State. Prior to contracting, owners of all forms of business doing business in the state except sole proprietorships, charitable organizations unincorporated associations and foreign insurance companies be registered and in good standing with the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA), Business Registration Division. Foreign insurance companies must register with DCCA, Insurance Division. More information is on the DCCA website. (See part II, Website Reference.)
- F. Hawaii Compliance Express (HCE). Providers may register with HCE for online proof of DOTAX and IRS tax clearance Department of Labor and Industrial Relations (DLIR) labor law compliance, and DCCA good standing compliance. There is a nominal annual fee for the service. The "Certificate of Vendor Compliance" issued online through HCE provides the registered provider's current compliance status as of the issuance date, and is accepted for both contracting and final payment purposes.

Refer to this section's part II. Website Reference for HCE's website address.

- G. Campaign Contributions by State and County Contractors. Providers are hereby notified of the applicability of HRS Section 11-205.5, which states that campaign contributions are prohibited from specified State or county government contractors during the term of the contract if the contractors are paid with funds appropriated by a legislative body. For more information, FAQs are available at the Campaign Spending Commission webpage. (See part II, Website Reference.)
- H. Confidential Information. If an applicant believes any portion of a proposal contains information that should be withheld as confidential, the applicant shall request in writing nondisclosure of designated proprietary data to be confidential and provide justification to support confidentiality. Such data shall accompany the proposal, be clearly marked, and shall be readily separable from the proposal to facilitate eventual public inspection of the non-confidential sections of the proposal.

Note that price is not considered confidential and will not be withheld.

- I. Confidentiality of Personal Information. Act 10 relating to personal information was enacted in the 2008 special legislative session. As a result, the Attorney General's General Conditions of Form AG Form 103F, Confidentiality of Personal Information, has been amended to include Section 8 regarding protection of the use and disclosure of personal information administered by the agencies and given to third parties.
- J. Proposal Submittal. All mail-ins shall be postmarked by the United States Postal System (USPS) and received by the State purchasing agency no later than the submittal deadline indicated on the attached Proposal Mail-in and Delivery Information Sheet. All hand deliveries shall be received by the State purchasing agency by the date and time designated on the Proposal Mail-In and Delivery Information Sheet. Proposals shall be rejected when:
- Postmarked after the designated date; or
 - Postmarked by the designated date but not received within 10 days from the submittal deadline; or
 - If hand delivered, received after the designated date and time.

The number of copies required is located on the Proposal Mail-In and Delivery Information Sheet. Deliveries by private mail services such as FEDEX shall be considered hand deliveries and shall be rejected if received after the submittal deadline. Dated USPS shipping labels are not considered postmarks.

Faxed proposals and/or submission of proposals on diskettes/cd or transmission by e-mail, website or other electronic means is not permitted.

IX. Discussions with Applicants

- A. Prior to Submittal Deadline. Discussions may be conducted with potential applicants to promote understanding of the purchasing agency's requirements.
- B. After Proposal Submittal Deadline - Discussions may be conducted with applicants whose proposals are determined to be reasonably susceptible of being selected for award, but proposals may be accepted without discussions, in accordance HAR Section 3-143-403.

X. Opening of Proposals

Upon receipt of a proposal by a state purchasing agency at a designated location, proposals, modifications to proposals, and withdrawals of proposals shall be date-stamped, and when possible, time-stamped. All documents so received shall be held in a secure place by the state purchasing agency and not examined for evaluation purposes until the submittal deadline.

Procurement files shall be open to public inspection after a contract has been awarded and executed by all parties.

XI. Additional Materials and Documentation

Upon request from the state purchasing agency, each applicant shall submit any additional materials and documentation reasonably required by the state purchasing agency in its evaluation of the proposals.

XII. RFP Amendments

The State reserves the right to amend this RFP at any time prior to the closing date for the final revised proposals.

XIII. Final Revised Proposals

If requested, final revised proposals shall be submitted in the manner, and by the date and time specified by the state purchasing agency. If a final revised proposal is not submitted, the previous submittal shall be construed as the applicant's best and final offer/proposal. The applicant shall submit only the section(s) of the proposal that are amended, along with the Proposal Application Identification Form (SPO-H-200). After final revised proposals are received, final evaluations will be conducted for an award.

XIV. Cancellation of Request for Proposal

The RFP may be canceled and any or all proposals may be rejected in whole or in part, when it is determined to be in the best interests of the State.

XV. Costs for Proposal Preparation

Any costs incurred by applicants in preparing or submitting a proposal are the applicants' sole responsibility.

XVI. Provider Participation in Planning

Provider participation in a state purchasing agency's efforts to plan for or to purchase health and human services prior to the state purchasing agency's release of a RFP, including the sharing of information on community needs, best practices, and providers' resources, shall not disqualify providers from submitting proposals if conducted in accordance with HAR Sections 3-142-202 and 3-142-203.

XVII. Rejection of Proposals

The State reserves the right to consider as acceptable only those proposals submitted in accordance with all requirements set forth in this RFP and which demonstrate an understanding of the problems involved and comply with the service specifications. Any proposal offering any other set of terms and conditions contradictory to those included in this RFP may be rejected without further notice.

A proposal may be automatically rejected for any one or more of the following reasons:

- (1) Rejection for failure to cooperate or deal in good faith. (HAR Section 3-141-201)
- (2) Rejection for inadequate accounting system. (HAR Section 3-141-202)
- (3) Late proposals (HAR Section 3-143-603)
- (4) Inadequate response to request for proposals (HAR Section 3-143-609)
- (5) Proposal not responsive (HAR Section 3-143-610(a)(1))
- (6) Applicant not responsible (HAR Section 3-143-610(a)(2))

XVIII. Notice of Award

A statement of findings and decision shall be provided to all applicants by mail upon completion of the evaluation of competitive purchase of service proposals.

Any agreement arising out of this solicitation is subject to the approval of the Department of the Attorney General as to form, and to all further approvals, including the approval of the Governor, required by statute, regulation, rule, order or other directive.

No work is to be undertaken by the awardee prior to the contract commencement date. The State of Hawaii is not liable for any costs incurred prior to the official starting date.

XIX. Protests

Any applicant may file a protest against the awarding of the contract. The Notice of Protest form, SPO-H-801, is available on the SPO website. (See paragraph II, Website Reference.) Only the following matters may be protested:

- (1) A state purchasing agency's failure to follow procedures established by Chapter 103F of the Hawaii Revised Statutes;
- (2) A state purchasing agency's failure to follow any rule established by Chapter 103F of the Hawaii Revised Statutes; and
- (3) A state purchasing agency's failure to follow any procedure, requirement, or evaluation criterion in a request for proposals issued by the state purchasing agency.

The Notice of Protest shall be postmarked by USPS or hand delivered to 1) the head of the state purchasing agency conducting the protested procurement and 2) the procurement officer who is conducting the procurement (as indicated below) within five working days of the postmark of the Notice of Findings and Decision sent to the protestor. Delivery services other than USPS shall be considered hand deliveries and considered submitted on the date of actual receipt by the state purchasing agency.

Shawn Yoshimoto
1901 Bachelot Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96817

III. Scope of Work

The scope of work encompasses the following tasks and responsibilities:

A. Service Activities

(Minimum and/or mandatory tasks and responsibilities provided only in accordance with the eligible individuals' approved Independent Living Plan (ILP) if the individual chooses to develop an ILP)

- 1) Core Independent Living Services, as follows:
 - a) Information and referral;
 - b) Independent Living (IL) skills training;
 - c) Peer counseling;
 - d) Individual and systems advocacy;
- 2) Services related to securing housing or shelter, including services related to community group living, and supportive of the purposes of the Rehabilitation Act and of the titles of the Rehabilitation Act, and adaptive housing services (including appropriate accommodations to and modifications of any space used to serve, or occupied by, individuals with significant disabilities);

- 3) Rehabilitation technology;
- 4) Mobility training;
- 5) Services and training for individuals with cognitive and sensory disabilities, including life skills training, and interpreter and reader services;
- 6) Personal assistance services, including attendant care and the training of personnel providing such services;
- 7) Transportation, including referral and assistance for such transportation;
- 8) Training to develop skills specifically designed for youths who are individuals with significant disabilities to promote self-awareness and esteem, develop advocacy and self-empowerment skills, and explore career options;
- 9) Services under other Federal, State, or local programs designed to provide resources, training, counseling, or other assistance of substantial benefit in enhancing the independence, productivity, and quality of life of individuals with significant disabilities;
- 10) Community awareness programs to enhance the understanding and integration into society of individuals with disabilities.
- 11) Outreach/home visits to underserved/unserved individuals with significant disabilities to inform this population of availability of Independent Living services;
- 12) Intake interview, assessment and eligibility determination and documentation. Before or at the same time as an applicant for IL services may begin receiving IL services, the service provider shall determine the applicant's eligibility and maintain documentation that the applicant has met the basic requirements for eligibility. Any individual with a significant disability is eligible for IL services. Significant disability means a severe physical, mental, cognitive, or sensory impairment that substantially limits an individual's ability to function independently in the family or community. The documentation must be dated and signed by the appropriate staff member of the service provider;
- 13) If a determination is made that an applicant for IL services is not an individual with a significant disability, the service provider shall provide documentation of the ineligibility determination that is dated and signed by an appropriate staff member. The service provider may determine an applicant to be ineligible for IL services only after full consultation with the applicant or, if the applicant chooses, the applicant's parent, guardian, or other legally authorized advocate or representative, or after providing a clear opportunity for this consultation. The service provider shall notify the applicant in writing of the action taken and inform the applicant or, if the applicant chooses, the applicant's parent, guardian, or other legally authorized advocate or representative, of the applicant's rights and the means by which the applicant may appeal the action taken. The service provider shall provide a detailed explanation of the availability and purposes of the Client Assistance Program (CAP) established within the State. If an applicant for IL services has been found ineligible, the service provider shall review the applicant's ineligibility at least once within 12 months after the ineligibility determination has been made and whenever the service provider determines that the applicant's status has materially changed. The review need not be conducted in situations where the applicant has refused the review, the applicant is no longer present in the State, or the applicant's whereabouts are unknown.

- 14) IL Plan. The service provider shall, in collaboration with the consumer, develop and periodically review, but no less than annually a written IL plan for the consumer, initiated after documentation of eligibility, unless there is a waiver signed by the consumer in the CSR. The IL plan must indicate the goals or objectives established, the services to be provided, and the anticipated duration of the service program and each component service. The plan must be developed jointly and signed by the appropriate staff member of the service provider and the consumer with a significant disability or if the individual chooses, the individual's guardian, parent, or other legally authorized advocate or representative. A copy of the IL plan, and any amendments, must be provided in an accessible format to the individual with a significant disability or, if consistent with State law and the individual chooses, the individual's guardian, parent, or other legally authorized advocate or representative. The IL plan must be reviewed as often as necessary but at least on an annual basis to determine whether services should be continued, modified, or discontinued, or whether the individual should be referred to a program of VR services under 34 CFR part 361 or to any other program of assistance. Each individual with a significant disability or, if consistent with State law and the individual chooses, the individual's guardian, parent, or other legally authorized advocate or representative, must be given an opportunity to review the IL plan and, if necessary, jointly redevelop and agree by signature to its terms.
- 15) The development of the IL plan and the provision of IL services must be coordinated to the maximum extent possible with any individualized
 - a) Plan for Employment for VR services for that individual;
 - b) Habilitation program for the individual prepared under the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act; and
 - c) Education program for the individual prepared under part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

B. Management Requirements (Minimum and/or mandatory requirements)1. Personnel

Preference will be given to qualified staff with disabilities.

2. Administrative

Applicants shall maintain a Consumer Service Record (CSR) in written form for each independent living service consumer that includes, but not limited to,

- a) documentation concerning eligibility or ineligibility for services;
- b) the services requested by the consumer;
- c) an Independent Living Plan (ILP) or written waiver from the consumer that states an ILP is unnecessary;
- d) the services actually provided to the consumer;
- e) the independent living goals or objectives established with the consumer, in the consumer's ILP; and achieved by the consumer; and
- f) the specific types of independent living services for which a financial need test will be applied and the individual's participation in the cost of any independent living services, including the individual's financial need.

Applicants shall adopt and implement policies and procedures to safeguard the confidentiality of all personal information of consumers.

Applicants shall establish policies and procedures that an individual with significant disabilities may use to obtain a review of decisions concerning the individual's request for independent living services or the provision of independent living services and use formats that are accessible to inform each individual who seeks or is receiving independent living services about the policies and procedures. Applicants shall provide a detailed explanation of the availability and purpose of the Client Assistance Program (CAP) established within the Protection and Advocacy Agency and how to contact CAP.

Applicants shall use other financial and service resources in all cases, to the extent possible, before the Independent Living resources are considered. Exceptions are allowable if such resources are inadequate, or untimely, or may interfere with or create difficulty for the consumer to achieve the consumer's independent living goals or objectives.

3. Quality assurance and evaluation specifications

Applicants shall conduct a survey of consumers' satisfaction with the independent living services and provide to the State and to consumers the content and results of the survey.

4. Output and performance/outcome measurements

The most critical performance measures are the number of consumers served and the number of consumers who achieve their independent living goals to function or continue to function in the family or community. The next criterion is client satisfaction with the services of the program.

5. Experience

The applicant shall provide a description of projects/contracts pertinent to the proposed services.

6. Coordination of services

The applicant shall coordinate services with other agencies and resources in the community.

7. Reporting requirements for program and fiscal data

Quarterly progress reports using the state purchasing agency's report format are required, as are quarterly financial expenditure reports.

C. Facilities

The applicant shall provide a description of its facilities/offices and demonstrate its adequacy in relation to the proposed services. If facilities are not presently available, describe plans to secure facilities. Also describe how the facilities meet ADA requirements and have special equipment required by consumers for equal access to all the services, programs, activities, resources and facilities.

IV. COMPENSATION AND METHOD OF PAYMENTA. Pricing structure or pricing methodology to be used

The pricing structure or pricing methodology for the required service activities will be cost reimbursement.

Cost Reimbursement

The cost reimbursement pricing structure reflects a purchase arrangement in which the purchasing agency pays the provider for budgeted agreed-upon costs that are actually incurred in delivering the services specified in the contract, up to a stated maximum obligation.

The total contract amount available will not exceed $726,731 for the period October 1, 2011 to September 30, 2013. The amounts awarded will be determined by the proposals, consumer needs in the different areas, and the amount of funds available for the Statewide Independent Living Services program contract.

B. Units of service and unit rate

Neither fixed units of service nor fixed unit rate is applicable.

C. Method of compensation and payment

Monthly payments will be made upon submission of invoice approved by the State.

Partial monthly payments may be made to a new AWARDDEE, upon request of the AWARDDEE during the first three months of the contract period. The amount of the partial payment shall be 1/24 of the total amount of the contract amount during each of the first three months.
